

46US46

Silk to Canvas: Fergana Valley to Karakalpakstan Grand Journey

Duration: 15 days / 14 nights

Day 1: Day 1: Tashkent Arrival ? Kokand

Arrive Tashkent. Transfer to Fergana Valley (5 hours by car or 1-hour flight). Evening walking tour of Kokand—visit Khudoyar Khan Palace. Orientation dinner with your small group.

Overnight at hotel

Day 2: Day 2: Margilan Silk Factory & Ikat Workshop

Morning: Visit legendary Yodgorlik Silk Factory—watch silk being spun from cocoons on 100-year-old machines. Afternoon: Hands-on ikat dyeing workshop. Learn how threads are tie-dyed BEFORE weaving to create blurred patterns. Homestay with silk weaver family.

Overnight at hotel

Day 3: Day 3: Rishtan Pottery Masterclass

Drive to Rishtan (1.5 hours). Full day with master potter Alisher Nazirov family. Morning: Pottery wheel session—shape bowls and plates. Afternoon: Learn the famous Rishtan turquoise glaze technique. Evening: Traditional ceramics family dinner. Homestay.

Overnight at hotel

Day 4: Day 4: Carpet Weaving in Fergana ? Samarkand

Morning: Carpet weaving workshop—try knotting techniques on a loom. Afternoon: Drive to Samarkand (6 hours through mountains). Evening: Registan Square at sunset—see where your journey crafts originated. Boutique hotel.

Overnight at hotel

Day 5: Day 5: Samarkand Paper-Making & Miniature Painting

Morning: Konigil village paper-making workshop—see how mulberry bark becomes silk-smooth paper. Make your own sheets. Afternoon: Miniature painting intro session—learn brush techniques. Evening: Registan by night (photo opportunity). Homestay.

---

Overnight at hotel

Day 6: Day 6: Gijduvan Pottery Immersion Day 1

Drive to Gijduvan (1 hour). Full day with UNESCO master potter. Morning: Advanced wheel techniques, shaping large pieces. Afternoon: Decorating pottery with traditional patterns. Evening: Potter family dinner with stories of 6 generations. Homestay.

---

Overnight at hotel

Day 7: Day 7: Gijduvan Pottery Day 2 ? Bukhara

Morning: Glazing your pottery pieces. Learn the iconic Gijduvan blue technique. Afternoon: Transfer to Bukhara (1 hour). Old City walking tour—explore artisan quarters. Boutique hotel.

---

Overnight at hotel

Day 8: Day 8: Bukhara Embroidery & Metalwork

Morning: Suzani embroidery workshop—learn chain stitch and satin stitch. Begin your own suzani panel. Afternoon: Blacksmith workshop—watch knife-making, try basic metalwork. Evening: Bukhara Old City at dusk. Homestay with embroidery family.

---

Overnight at hotel

Day 9: Day 9: Bukhara Continued Embroidery & Free Time

Morning: Continue your suzani panel—add colors and patterns. Master shares family designs passed down 5 generations. Afternoon: Free time to explore Bukhara bazaars, visit Ark Fortress, or shop for crafts. Evening: Rooftop dinner. Homestay.

---

Overnight at hotel

Day 10: Day 10: Khiva Old Town & Wood Carving

Early morning flight to Urgench, transfer to Khiva (30 min). Morning: Khiva Old Town tour (UNESCO site)—see wood carving masters at work. Afternoon: Wood carving workshop—try chiseling walnut wood for doors and pillars. Boutique hotel in Old Town.

---

Overnight at hotel

Day 11: Day 11: Nukus ? Savitsky Museum Finale

Morning: Drive to Nukus through Kyzylkum Desert (4 hours). Afternoon: 3-hour private curator tour of Savitsky Museum—see 90,000 artworks, including Soviet avant-garde banned pieces. This is the culmination of your craft journey. Hotel in Nukus.

---

Overnight at hotel

Day 12: Day 12: Nukus ? Tashkent Departure

Morning: Flight back to Tashkent. Afternoon: Pick up your fired pottery pieces (or arrange shipping). Farewell lunch. Depart with your handmade ikat scarf, ceramic bowl, suzani panel, miniature painting, and craft journal.

---

Overnight at hotel